Because He Loved Me So.

MRS. EMILY HUNTINGTON MILLER. GEO. F. ROOT.

1 I love to hear the story,
Which angel voices tell,
How once the King of Glory
Came down on earth to dwell
I am both weak and sinful,
But this I surely know,
The Lord came down to save me,
Because He loved me so.

2 I'm glad my blessed Savior
Was once a child like me,
To show how pure and holy
His little ones might be:
And if I try to follow
His footsteps here below,
He never will forget me,
Because He loved me so.

3 To sing His love and mercy,
My sweetest songs I'll raise,
And though I can not see Him,
I know He hears my praise!
For He has kindly promised
That I shall surely go
To sing among His angels,
Because He loved me so.

Ring the Bells of Heaven.

W. O. CUSHING. G. F. R.

1 Ring the bells of heaven! there is joy to-day,
For a soul returning from the wild;
See! the Father meets him out upon the way,
Welcoming His weary, wand'ring child.

CHORUS.

Glory! glory! how the angels sing!
Glory! glory! how the loud harps ring!
'Tis the ransomed army, like a mighty sea,
Pealing forth the anthem of the free.

2 Ring the bells of heaven! there is joy to-day,
For the wanderer now is reconciled;
Yes, a soul is rescued from his sinful way,
And is born anew a ransomed child.

3 Ring the bells of heaven! spread the feast to-day!
Angels, swell the glad triumphant strain!
Tell the joyful tidings! bear it far away!
For a precious soul is born again.

Then let all be true as we into battle go.

The summons will come from the other shore;
And then home to glory we will rejoicing go,
To praise him for the victory he gave us here below.

Knocking, Knocking, Who is There?

MRS. H. B. STOWE. Arr. G. F. R.

1 Knocking, knocking, who is there?
Waiting, waiting, oh, how fair!
'Tis a Pilgrim, strange and kingly,
Never such was seen before.
Ah, my soul, for such a wonder,
Wilt thou not undo the door?

2 Knocking, knocking, still He's there,
Waiting, waiting, wondrous fair;
But the door is hard to open,
For the weeds and ivy-vine,
With their dark and clinging tendrils,
Ever round the hinges twine.

Knocking, knocking—what, still there?
Waiting, waiting, grand and fair;
Yes, the pierced hand still knocketh,
And beneath the crowned hair
Beam the patient eyes, so tender,
Of thy Savior, waiting there.

There's no one to save you but Jesus,
There's no other way but his way.

Oh, why not accept his salvation,

Where are the Reapers?

E. E. Rexford. G. F. R.

1 Oh, where are the reapers that garner in
The sheaves of the good from the fields of sin?
With sickles of truth must the work be done,
And no one may rest till the "harvest home."

Chorus.

Where are the reapers? Oh! who will come
And share in the glory of the "harvest home?"
Oh! who will help us to garner in
The sheaves of good from the fields of sin?

2 Go out in the by-ways and search them all;
The wheat may be there, tho' the weeds are tall;
Then search in the highway, and pass none by,
But gather from all for the home on high.

3 The fields are all ripening, and far and wide
The world now is waiting the harvest tide;
But reapers are few, and the work is great,
And much will be lost should the harvest wait.

4 So come with your sickles, ye sons of men,
And gather together the golden grain;
Toil on till the Lord of the harvest come,
Then share ye His joy in the "harvest home."

I will Seek My Father.

PAULINA.

Music arr. by F. W. ROOT.

1 When the morn is bright and fair,
When sweet songsters charm the air,
I will lift my voice in prayer,
I will seek my Father;
Lest my feet should go astray
From His pure and perfect way;
Lest I grieve Him as I may,
I will seek my Father.

2 In the solitude apart,
In the wilderness or mart,
Oh! my sorely tempted heart,
I will seek my Father;
In the darkness as the day,
He shall be my Guide and Stay;
I will lean on Him alway,
I will seek my Father.

3 When the evening sun is red,
When each blossom droops its head
Kneeling low beside my bed,
I will seek my Father;
That I slumber in His care,
Shielded from each harmful snare
And for life or death prepare,
I will seek my Father.

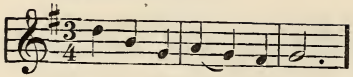
ITALIAN HYMN.



1 Come, thou almighty King,
Help us thy name to sing,
Help us to praise!
Father all glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come and reign over us,
Ancient of days.

2 Come, thou incarnate Word,
Gird on thy mighty sword;
Our prayer attend;
Come, and thy people bless;
Come, give thy word success;
Spirit of holiness,
On us descend.

3 Come, holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear,
In this glad hour;
Thou, who almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power.

4 To thee, great One in Three,
The highest praises be,
Hence evermore;
Thy sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore.

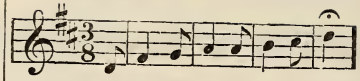
Rev. Chas. Wesley.

DOXOLOGY.

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit, Three in One,
All praise be given;
Crown him in every song;
To him your hearts belong;
Let all his praise prolong
On earth, in heaven.

Rev. E. F. Hatfield.

SWEET HOUR.

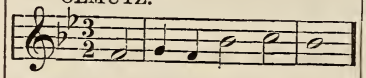


1 Obeying thy divine behest,
We meet, O Christ, to speak of thee;
Thou art amongst us as a guest,
We feel it, though we can not see;
We seem to breathe, in glad surprise,
An atmosphere of love and bliss,
And read within each other's eyes,
To whom it is we owe all this.

2 How quickly every strife will end,
How soon all idle griefs depart,
When friend takes counsel thus with friend, [meets heart!
When soul meets soul, and heart
We have so many things to say,
So many failings to confess,
Time flies, alas! so soon away,
We can not half we would express.

3 O let us then, dear Lord, be blest
With thy sweet presence every day;
Be with us as our daily guest,
And our companion on the way.
Fan our devotion's feeble flame,
Let us press on to things before;
Bring us together in thy name,
Until we meet to part no more.

OLMUTZ.

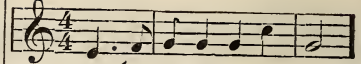


1 Welcome, sweet day of rest
That saw the Lord arise;
Welcome to this reviving breast
And these rejoicing eyes.

2 The King himself comes near
And feasts his saints to-day;
Here we may sit, and see him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.

Isaac Watts.

LABAN.



1 Awake, and sing the song
Of Moses and the Lamb;
Wake, every heart and every tongue,
To praise the Saviour's name.

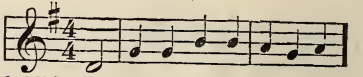
2 Sing of his dying love;
Sing of his rising power!
Sing, how he intercedes above,
For those whose sins he bore.

3 Sing, till we feel our hearts
Ascending with our tongues;
Sing, till the love of sin departs,
And grace inspires our songs.

4 Sing on your heavenly way—
Ye ransom'd sinners, sing!
Sing on, rejoicing every day,
In Christ, the exalted King.

Rev. Martin Madan.

CORONATION.



1 All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem
And crown him Lord of all!

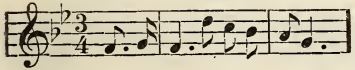
2 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all!

3 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all!

4 O that, with yonder sacred throng,
We at his feet may fall;
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all!

Rev. Edward Perronet.

LOWER LIGHTS.



1 Brightly beams our Father's mercy
From his lighthouse evermore,
But to us he gives the keeping
Of the lights along the shore.

CHORUS:
Let the lower lights be burning,
Send a gleam across the wave!
Some poor fainting, struggling seaman
You may rescue, you may save.

2 Dark the night of sin has settled;
Loud the angry billows roar;
Eager eyes are watching, longing,
For the lights along the shore.
Chorus.

3 Trim your feeble lamp, my brother!
Some poor sailor tempest tost,
Trying now to make the harbor,
In the darkness may be lost!
P. P. Bliss. Chorus.

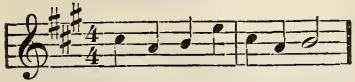
NUREMBURG.

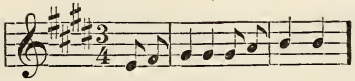


1 Holy Bible! book divine!
Precious treasure! thou art mine!
Mine, to tell me whence I came;
Mine, to teach me what I am;

2 Mine, to chide me when I rove;
Mine, to show a Saviour's love;
Mine art thou to guide my feet;
Mine, to judge, condemn, acquit;

3 Mine, to comfort in distress,
If the Holy Spirit bless;
Mine, to show by living faith
Man can triumph over death;
John Burton.

JEWELS.



1 When he cometh, when he cometh
To make up his jewels,
All his jewels, precious jewels,
His loved and his own.—

CHORUS:
Like the stars of the morning,
His bright crown adorning,
They shall shine in their beauty,
Bright gems for his crown.

2 He will gather, he will gather,
The gems for his kingdom;
All the pure ones, all the bright ones,
His loved and his own.—Chorus.

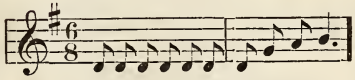
3 Little children, little children,
Who love their Redeemer,
Are the jewels, precious jewels,
His loved and his own.
Rev. W. O. Cushing.

JESUS LOVES ME.

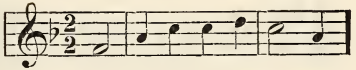


1 I am so glad that our Father in heaven [given;
Tells of his love in the book he has
Wonderful things in the Bible I see;
This is the dearest, that Jesus loves me.

REFRAIN—I am so glad, etc.

2 Though I forget him and wander away,
Still doth he love me wherever I stray;
Back to his dear loving arms would I flee,
When I remember that Jesus loves me.
Chorus.
P. P. Bliss.

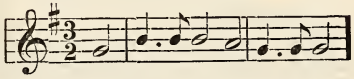
MISSIONARY HYMN.



1 From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand—
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.

2 Shall we whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high—
Shall we, to men benighted,
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation—O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.
Bishop Heber.

ARLINGTON.

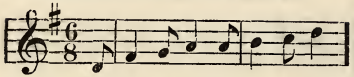


1 How precious is the book divine,
By inspiration given;
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.

2 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts
In this dark vale of tears;
And life, and light, and joy imparts,
To calm our anxious fears.

3 This lamp through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.
Rev. John Fawcett.

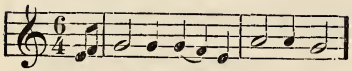
SWEET HOUR OF PRAYER.



1 Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer!
That calls me from a world of care,
And bids me at my Father's throne,
Make all my wants and wishes known;
In seasons of distress and grief,
My soul has often found relief,
And oft escaped the tempter's snare,
By thy return, sweet hour of prayer.

2 Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer!
Thy wings shall my petition bear
To him, whose truth and faithfulness
Engage the waiting soul to bless;
And since he bids me seek his face,
Believe his word and trust his grace,
I'll cast on him my every care,
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.
Rev. W. W. Walford.

RETREAT.

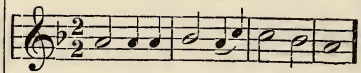


1 From every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat,
'Tis found beneath the mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads;
A place than all beside more sweet,
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend:
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.
Rev. H. Stowell.

FEDERAL STREET.

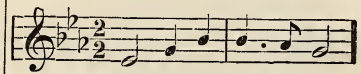


1 They pray the best who pray and watch,
They watch the best who watch and pray,
They hear Christ's fingers on the latch,
Whether he comes by night, or day.

2 Whether they guard the gates and watch,
Or, patient, toil for him, and wait,
They hear his fingers on the latch,
If early he doth come, or late.

3 With trembling joy they hail their Lord,
And haste his welcome feet to kiss,
While he, well pleased, doth speak the word
That thrills them with unending bliss.
Rev. E. Hopper.

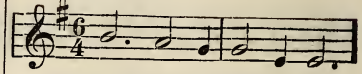
OLIVET.



1 My faith looks up to thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine!
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away,
O let me from this day
Be wholly thine.

2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
O may my love to thee,
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire.
Ray Palmer, D. D.

BETHANY.

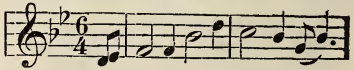


1 Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!
E'en tho' it be a cross
That raiseth me,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.

2 Tho' like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.

3 There let my way appear
Steps unto heaven;
All that thou sendest me,
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.
Mrs. Sarah F. Adams.

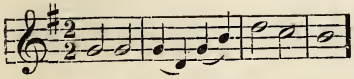
CROSS AND CROWN.



1 Must Jesus bear the cross alone,
And all the world go free?
No, there's a cross for every one,
And there's a cross for me.

2 The consecrated cross I'll bear,
Till death shall set me free;
And then go home, my crown to wear,
For there's a crown for me!
Thos. Shepherd.

HENDON.



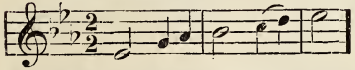
NEW YEAR.

1 Bless, O Lord, the opening year
To each soul assembled here;
Clothe thy word with power divine,
Make us willing to be thine.

2 Where thou hast thy work begun,
Give new strength the race to run;
Scatter darkness, doubts, and fears,
Wipe away the mourner's tears.

3 Bless us all, both old and young;
Call forth praise from every tongue;
Let the whole assembly prove
All thy power and all thy love.
Rev. John Newton.

DUKE STREET.

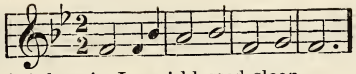


1 O Lord, our Guardian and our stay,
Do thou our humble efforts bless,
And every evil take away,
And spread the cause of righteousness.

2 From day to day thy power make known,
Thy wisdom and thy truth divine;
And may we still thy goodness own,
While round our path thy mercies shine.

3 The drunkard, Lord, in pity see,
A slave to Satan and to sin;
Oh, teach him from all sin to flee;
Restore and make him clean within.

WARD.

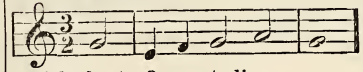


1 Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep;
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes.

2 Asleep in Jesus! oh, how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet!
With holy confidence to sing
That death has lost his cruel sting.

3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest;
No fear, no woe, shall dim the hour
That manifests the Saviour's power.
Margaret Mackay.

BOYLSTON.



1 Make haste, O man to live,
For thou so soon must die;
Time hurries past thee like the breeze—
How swift its moments fly!

2 Make haste, O man, to do
Whatever must be done;
Thou hast no time to lose in sloth,
The day will soon be gone!
—— Rev. H. Bonar.

1 Christian brethren, ere we part,
Let us each, with grateful heart,
To our Father once more raise
Our united hymns of praise.

2 Here perhaps we meet no more,
But we seek a brighter shore,
Where, beyond all sin and pain,
Brethren we shall meet again.

AMERICA.

1 My country 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

2 My native country, thee,
Land of the noble, free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

3 Our fathers' God! to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!
S. F. Smith, D. D.

TEMPERANCE.

Tune—HOLD THE FORT.

1 Brothers! rally for the conflict,
See the banner wave; [ward,
Temperance bands are pressing on-
Fallen men to save.

CHORUS:
Hear a mighty host of freemen
Songs of triumph raise;
Love hath conquered, chains are broken,
Give to God the praise.

2 Burst the tyrant's bands asunder,
Set the captives free;
Let rejoicing wives and mothers
Shout the jubilee.
Cho. Wm. Stevenson.

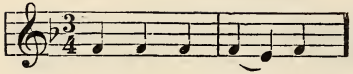
HURSLEY.



1 Sun of my soul, thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if thou art near;
Oh, may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide thee from thy servant's eyes.

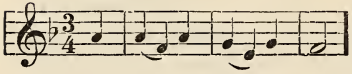
2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
Forever on my Saviour's breast.

3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without thee I can not live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without thee I dare not die.

4 If some poor wand'ring child of thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine—
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin;
Let him no more lie down in sin.

John Keble, 1827.

DENNIS.



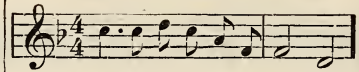
1 Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

2 Before our Father's throne,
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,—
Our comforts and our cares.

3 We share our mutual woes:
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

Rev. John Fawcett.

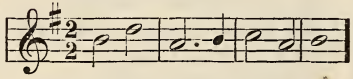
WHAT A FRIEND.



1 Blessed Saviour, watch us, guard us,
As we leave our "Sabbath home;"
Guide and keep us from all danger,
Till again to thee we come.
Though we very often wander
Sorely tempted, prone to sin,
Yet we pray that thou wouldst hear us,
Cleanse and make us pure within.

2 Make each spirit meek and lowly,
Make us leave the ways of strife;
Lead us in the path of duty,
Lead us to the "better life."
Thus we'd serve thee, blessed Saviour,
Till we've crossed life's stormy sea,
And with each loved friend and teacher,
All are gathered home to thee.

PLEYEL'S HYMN.



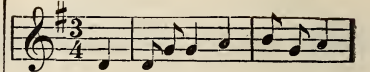
1 One with Christ! O blessed thought!
We are by his Spirit taught;
On his fulness now we live,
Grace for grace we thence receive.

2 One with Christ! ye saints rejoice,
As th objects of his choice;
He will every want supply,
While he lives we can not die.

3 One with Christ! forever one,
Debts are paid and work is done;
Grace and glory both are given,
We are on our way to heaven.

Joseph Irons.

SHINING SHORE.



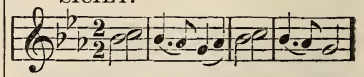
1 My days are gliding swiftly by,
And I, a pilgrim stranger,
Would not detain them as they fly,
Those hours of toil and danger.
For oh! we stand on Jordan's strand,
Our friends are passing over,
And just before the shining shore,
We may almost discover.

2 We'll gird our loins, my brethren dear,
Our distant homes discerning;
Our absent Lord has left us word,
Let every lamp be burning.
For oh! we stand, etc.

3 Should coming days be cold and dark,
We need not cease our singing;
That perfect rest nought can molest,
Where golden harps are ringing.
For oh! we stand, etc.

Rev. David Nelson.

SICILY.



1 Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing,
Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
Let us each, thy love possessing,
Triumph in redeeming grace;
Oh refresh us,
Traveling through this wilderness.

2 Thanks we give, and adoration,
For thy gospel's joyful sound;
May the fruits of thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound,
May thy presence
With us evermore be found.

Rev. Walter Shirley.

PREPARED BY REV. W. H. PEARCE AND LEWIS MILLER, ESQ.

These Services from "Pure Delight" are reprinted here by universal request.

Let the Organist and Leader have the notes to the verses to be sung—the School will not need them, as the music will be familiar to all. Do not play over the tune first, but let all come in promptly with the organ. Let all who are present join in the singing.

Abbreviation—Supt., Superintendent; Sch., School; B. C., Bible Class; G. H. C., Gospel Hymns Combined.

No. 1. WORD OF GOD.

Supt. Come hither, and hear the words of the Lord your God.

Sch. The word of the Lord is tried. Every word of God is pure.

Pastor. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

Sch. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Supt. The entrance of thy words giveth light.

Sch. Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

Supt. Blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

Sch. Search the Scriptures.

Supt. Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein.

B. C. Thy testimonies are wonderful. The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting.

Sch. How sweet are thy words unto my taste, yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth.

Supt. And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved.

Sch. My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes.

Supt. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the word of God shall stand for ever.

All sing.

Sing them over again to me,
Wonderful words of Life,
Let me more of their beauty see,
Wonderful words of Life,
Words of life and beauty,
Teach me faith and duty;
Beautiful words, wonderful words,
Wonderful words of Life.

No. 2.—GOD'S JUSTICE AND MERCY.

Supt. Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

Sch. Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Supt. I am the Lord which exercise loving kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the Lord.

B. C. Lord, the habitation of justice.

Supt. Who remembered us in our low estate: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Sch. O Lord of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart.

Pastor. And showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

Supt. Righteous art thou, O Lord, and upright art thy judgments.

Sch. Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity, transgression and sin.

Teacher. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good or whether it be evil.

Supt. Gracious is the Lord, and righteous: yea our God is merciful.

Pastor. But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth.

Sch. Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort.

Missionary Chant, or Federal Street.

All sing. Forever firm thy justice stands,
As mountains their foundations keep;
Wise are the wonders of thy hands;
Thy judgments are a mighty deep.

From the provisions of thy house
We shall be fed with sweet repast;
There mercy like a river flows,
And brings salvation to our taste.

No. 3.—RIGHTEOUS and UNRIGHTEOUS.

Supt. Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

Sch. Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

Supt. The Lord shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

Pastor. The work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance for ever.

Sch. If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity. If I be wicked, woe unto me.

Pastor. And if I be righteous, yet will I not lift my head.

Supt. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous.

Sch. But the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Boylston.

All sing. Humbly on thee I wait,
Confessing all my sins;
Lord, I am knocking at the gate:
Open, and take me in.

Pastor. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

Supt. Great peace have they which love thy law.

Sch. Evil doers shall be cut off.

Supt. But those that wait upon the Lord, they shall inherit the earth.

Sch. But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

Supt. Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

Sch. The wicked is driven away in his wickedness.

Supt. But the righteous hath hope in his death.

Sch. Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my end be like his!

Boylston.

All sing. O for the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord
O be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward.

No. 4.—SAVIOUR—REDEEMER.

Supt. And thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins.

Sch. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up.

Pastor. That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

Sch. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Supt. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

G. H. C. No. 21.

All sing. I gave my life for thee,
My precious blood I shed,
That thou might'st ransomed be,
And quickened from the dead;
I gave, I gave my life for thee,
What hast thou given for me?

Pastor. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, for to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.

Sch. What must I do to be saved?

Supt. Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

Sch. Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

Supt. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

Teachers and Officers. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Coronation.

All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem
And crown him Lord of all!
Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all!

No. 5.—GRACIOUS INVITATION.

Supt. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat.

Sch. Yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Supt. Incline your ear, and come unto me; hear, and your soul shall live.

Sch. Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered.

B. C. Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Sch. For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

Teachers. In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood crying, saying, if any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

Sch. And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger.

Supt. Behold, I stand at the door, and knock; if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

Sch. The Spirit and the bride say, Come.

Supt. And let him that heareth, say, Come.

Sch. And let him that is athirst come.

Supt. And whosoever will, let him take of the water of life freely.

G. H. C. No. 63.

All sing. I hear thy welcome voice
That calls me, Lord, to thee,
For cleansing in thy precious blood
That flowed on Calvary.

I am coming, Lord!
Coming now to thee;
Wash me, cleanse me in the blood
That flowed on Calvary.

No. 6.—CHRIST'S SYMPATHY and CARE.

Supt. For I am the Lord that healeth. Who forgiveth thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases.

Sch. He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

Supt. The eternal God is thy refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms.

Sch. The Lord also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

Supt. The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

Sch. Like a shepherd he shall gather the lambs with his arms and carry them in his bosom.

Supt. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

Sch. Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

Supt. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

Sch. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

Supt. Fear ye not, therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

Sch. A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench.

Supt. He hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound.

Sch. To comfort all that mourn.

Supt. To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness.

Sch. Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Supt. For we have not a high priest which can not be touched with the feeling of our infirmities: but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

Sch. Let us, therefore, come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

G. H. C. No. 50.

All sing. Precious promise God hath given,
To the weary passer by,
On the way from earth to heaven,
"I will guide thee with Mine eye."

I will guide thee, I will guide thee,
I will guide thee with Mine eye,
On the way from earth to heaven,
"I will guide thee with Mine eye."

No. 7.—PRAYER—PROMISE.

Supt. O God! thou art my God; early will I seek thee.

Pastor. They that seek me early shall find me.

Sch. Lord, to whom shall we go?

Supt. Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

Sch. Oh, that I knew where I might find him, that I might come even to his seat.

Pastor. Ye shall seek me and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

Sch. O Lord, thou art our Father; we are all the work of thy hand.

Supt. I will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

Sch. Leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

Supt. I will never leave thee nor forsake thee.

Pastor. Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness; make thy way straight before my face.

Sch. I will lead them in paths that they have not known; I will make crooked things straight.

Supt. Give thy servant an understanding heart.

Teachers and Officers. I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the Lord; they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

Pastor. Hear, O Lord, when I cry with my voice.

Sch. And it shall come to pass that before they call I will answer, and while they are yet speaking I will hear.

Supt. Blessed be the Lord, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

Olmutz.

All sing. Behold the throne of grace;
The promise calls us near;
There Jesus shows a smiling face,
And waits to answer prayer.

No. 8.—CONFESSION and PARDON.

Supt. O my God, incline thine ear, and hear: open thine eyes, and behold; O Lord, Forgive.

Sch. For we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousness, but for thy great mercies.

Supt. Blessed is he whose transgressions is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

Pastor. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.

Sch. Redeem me, and be merciful unto me.

Teachers. Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me and I shall be whiter than snow.

Supt. Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.

Sch. Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

Pastor. Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

Sch. Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation: and uphold me with thy free Spirit.

Teachers. I entreated thy favor with my whole heart.

Sch. Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee.

Supt. I have longed for thy salvation.

Sch. Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

Supt. When he crieth unto me, then I will hear; for I am gracious.

Sch. Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow.

Pastor. Though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

Sch. Ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace.

G. H. C, No. 300.

All sing. I've found the pearl of greatest price
My heart doth sing for joy;
And sing I must, for Christ is mine!
Christ shall my song employ.

No. 9.—OUR REFUGE.

Supt. Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

Sch. From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee.

Pastor. When my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

Sch. For thou hast been shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

B. C. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Supt. The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms.

Sch. Yea, the almighty shall be thy defence.

Supt. He is my refuge and my fortress; my God; in him will I trust.

Martyn.

All Sing. Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll
While the tempest still is high;

Hide me, oh, my Savior, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide,
Oh, receive my soul at last.

Supt. He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

Sch. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Supt. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

Sch. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Supt. As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people from henceforth even forever.

Sch. In his love and his pity he redeemed you.

Pastor. He that toucheth you, toucheth the apple of his eye.

Pleyel's Hymn.

All sing. Other refuge have I none,
Hangs my helpless soul on thee;

Still support and comfort me.

All my trust on thee is stayed,
All my help from thee I bring:
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of thy wing.

No. 10.—PRESENCE OF GOD.

Supt. O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me.

Sch. Thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine uprising: thou understandest my thought afar off.

Supt. Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

Sch. For there is not a word in my tongue but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.

Sch. Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

Supt. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me: it is high, I can not attain unto it.

Supt. Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

Sch. If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

Supt. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,

Sch. Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

Supt. If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me, even the night shall be light about me.

Sch. Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day; the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

Supt. Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts,

Sch. And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Supt. The eyes of all wait upon thee, and thou givest them their meat in due season.

Sch. Thou openest thy hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

Ten thousand foes arise;
The hosts of sin are pressing hard,
To draw thee from the skies.

Sch. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

Pastor. Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

Sch. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness.

And, watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove!
With all thy quickening powers,
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,

Supt. Then shall the lame man leap as a hart

Sch. And the tongue of the dumb sing.

Pastor. For in the wilderness shall waters break out.

Sch. And streams in the desert.

Supt. He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass, as showers that water the earth.

Sch. A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench.

Pastor. He shall judge the poor of the people; he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

Sch. In his days shall righteousness flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

Pastor. He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

Supt. And the building of the wall of it was of jasper.

Sch. And the twelve gates were twelve pearls.

Supt. And the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

Sch. And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

Pastor. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it.

In the sweet by-and-by,

Sch. Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

Supt. For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

No. 18.—SACRIFICE.

Supt. And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the Lord.

Sch. And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And the Lord had respect unto Abel and to his offering:

Supt. By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

Sch. If his offering be a burnt offering of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord.

Supt. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh,

Sch. How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

Supt. By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Sch. Unto him be glory in the Church, by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

Supt. Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

Sch. Unto him be glory in the Church, by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

Coronation.

All sing. Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

No. 22.—(CLOSING.)

Supt. His name shall endure forever.

Sch. His name shall be continued as long as the sun.

Supt. And men shall be blessed in him.

Sch. All nations shall call him blessed.

Supt. Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel.

Sch. Who only doeth wonderful things;

Supt. And blessed be his glorious name forever.

Sch. And let the whole earth be filled with his glory.

Supt. Amen;

Sch. And Amen.

Arlington.

All sing. O Jesus, thou the beauty art
Of angel-worlds above;
Thy name is music to the heart,
Inflaming it with love.

No. 23.—(CLOSING.)

Supt. The peace of God which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Sch. I pray God your whole spirit, and soul, and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Supt. The Lord bless thee and keep thee.

Sch. The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee.

Supt. The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

Gloria Patri, 167 this book.

All sing. Glory be to the Father, and | to the | Son, ‖
and | to the | Holy | Ghost:
As it was in the beginning, is now, and | ever
shall be, ‖ world | without | end, A- | men.

No. 24.—(CLOSING.)

Supt. I have no greater joy than to know that my children walk in truth.

Sch. Mercy unto you, and peace, and love be multiplied.

Supt. Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God; but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

Sch. Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

Webb.

All sing. We bring no glittering treasures,
No gems from earth's deep mine;
We come with simple measures,
To chant Thy love divine.
Children, Thy favors sharing.
Their voice of thanks would raise;
Father, accept our offering,
Our songs of grateful praise.

No. 25.—(CLOSING.)

Supt. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom.

Sch. For the gospel came not unto us in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance.

Supt. Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid;

Sch. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee and worthily magnify thy holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Supt. It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, almighty, everlasting God.

Sch. Therefore, with angels and arch-angels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious name, evermore praising thee, and saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

Supt. Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, be glory forever.

Sicily.

All sing. Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing;
Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
May the fruits of thy salvation
In our lives and hearts abound,
May thy presence
With us evermore be found.

No. 26.—THE ADVENT.

Supt. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion: shout, O daughter of Jerusalem!

Sch. Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, he is just, and having salvation.

Supt. Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

Sch. Who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of Lords.

Teachers. Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

Sch. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

Pastor. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

Antioch.

All sing. Joy to the world, the Lord is come,
Let earth receive her king:
Let every heart prepare him room,
And heaven and nature sing.

Supt. And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field and keeping watch over their flock by night.

Sch. And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

Supt. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

Sch. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.

Supt. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

Pastor. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

Sch. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

Sch. And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

Supt. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

B. C. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

Sch. And all they that heard it wondered at these things which were told them by the shepherds.

Supt. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people.

Sch. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.

All sing. Joy to the world! the Savior reigns;
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains,
Repeat the sounding joy.

No. 27.—THE RESURRECTION.

Supt. For I know that my Redeemer liveth.

Sch. Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

Supt. O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves.

Sch. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

Supt. Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept.

Sch. Fo if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

Pastor. He which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise us up also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

Supt. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotton us again into a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away.

Sch. But some man will say, How are the dead raised up, and with what body do they come?

Supt. We shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

Sch. For this corruptible must put on incorruption.

Supt. And this mortal must put on immortality.

Sch. It is sown in corruption.
Supt. It is raised in incorruption.
Sch. It is sown in dishonor.
Supt. It is raised in glory.
Sch. It is sown in weakness.
Supt. It is raised in power.
Sch. It is sown a natural body.
Supt. It is raised a spiritual body.

Sch. Then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

Supt. O death, where is thy sting?

Sch. The sting of death is sin.

Supt. O grave, where is thy victory?

Pastor. Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ. To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Coronation.

All sing. Jesus, the Lord of glory, died,
That we might never die
And now he reigns supreme, to guide
His people to the sky.

Do not confine these services to but two occasions in a year. The wonderful events they commemorate should frequently be brought to the attention of the school.

The Law of Love. (With chant response.)

From "Choir and Congregation."

Sup't.

I.

The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength.

School.

With my whole heart have I sought thee; Oh, let me not wander from thy commandments.

Sup't.

II.

And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

School.

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes; And I shall keep it un - to the end.

Sup't.

III.

A new commandment I give unto you: That ye love one another. As I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this will all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

School.

Search me, O God, and know my heart; Try me, and know my thoughts;
And see if there be any wicked way in me; And lead me in the way everlast - ing.

Sup't.

IV.

Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the Law and the Prophets.

School.

The law was given by Moses; Grace and truth came by Je - sus Christ.
And of his fullness have we all re-ceived; And grace for grace. A - men.

By permission.
